

New Head of Chambers

Alastair Wilson QC and Roger Wyand QC have decided to step down as Joint Heads of Chambers. We are delighted to announce that Nicholas Caddick QC has agreed to take over as Head of Chambers in their place.

Nick was called to the bar in 1986, took silk in 2011, and was appointed a Deputy High Court Judge in 2018 sitting in the Chancery Division. He specialises in intellectual property, commercial and Chancery law. He has particular expertise where those areas of law overlap and, specifically, where intellectual property claims are affected by contractual issues, title disputes, insolvency or breaches of fiduciary duty.

Directories quote him as "... clever, measured and calm with excellent legal analysis" and that he has "...excellent knowledge and provides a very high level of service."

We are looking forward to the next phase of Hogarth's history with Nick at the helm.

We should emphasise that, despite stepping down as Heads of Chambers, Alastair and Roger are continuing in full-time practice, specialising in IP, Patents, Copyright & Design, Trade Marks, IT, Media & Entertainment, and Technology cases.
