

ANTONY WATSON QC JOINS HOGARTH CHAMBERS

LATEST NEWS 4 June 2013

We are pleased to announce that Antony Watson QC joined Hogarth Chambers on 1 June 2013.

Antony's practice encompasses all aspects of Intellectual Property and arbitration, especially in disputes involving technical issues. He has acted in many of the leading Intellectual Property cases of the last 40 years; these include Amgen v Boehringer and Pavel v Sony. His wealth of experience will be an asset to Hogarth and his arbitration skills will complement Hogarth's established team of mediators.

Heads of Chambers Alastair Wilson QC and Roger Wyand QC commented "We are very pleased to welcome Antony at Hogarth Chambers. He will be valued not only for his pre-eminent skills but also for his technical ability."

Antony Watson states "that he is delighted to be joining Hogarth Chambers and looks forward to the opportunities and challenges arising from joining such a successful set of chambers".
