

IAN BOWIE JOINS HOGARTH CHAMBERS

LATEST NEWS 20 March 2013

Hogarth Chambers is pleased to announce that Ian Bowie will be joining the clerking team as a consultant from 2 April 2013.

Ian has worked in the industry for 40 years and has an unrivalled depth of experience of clerking in intellectual property. Ian will be sharing his knowledge to help members of chambers and the clerking team to build on Hogarth's successes.

Heads of Chambers Alastair Wilson QC and Roger Wyand QC are delighted that Ian has accepted the role, and commented: "Ian has an outstanding reputation in the world of IP and we have no doubt that his expertise will be a great boon to chambers".

Ian says: "After spending so long in one chambers, it will be good to take on the challenges of a new environment. I am very pleased to have been given the opportunity of assisting the members and staff of Hogarth Chambers."
