

New Tenant: Nick Zweck

Hogarth Chambers is pleased to announce that Nick Zweck has joined chambers as a tenant. Nick practises in all areas of intellectual property law and related commercial litigation.

Nick brings to the Bar over a decade of experience as an IP litigation solicitor. He has extensive experience working with clients and legal teams on all aspects of the litigation process, from pre-action strategic planning through to trial or settlement.

As a solicitor, Nick handled cases across a wide range of technical fields, including life sciences, mobile telecommunications, consumer electronics, video compression, trading software, sub-sea oil extraction and security scanning.

Nick has particular experience of large, complex disputes with multi-jurisdictional aspects.

During pupillage, Nick was involved in a wide range of intellectual property matters concerning patents, trade marks and passing off, copyright, and designs.
